

Digraph th

Parents! A digraph is two letters that combine to make one sound like th, sh, and ch. In this book, Fat Cat and Bad Rat, your child will learn words that contain digraphs th and sh.

1

When the letters t and h come together, they make a new sound, th. The digraph th sounds like the beginning of the word “thief”.

th

/th/

2

The following words begin with the th sound. Ask your child to point to each word and say it out loud.

thumb
